Fifty-third session
Second Committee
Agenda item 93 (d)
Sustainable development and international economic cooperation: Renewal of the dialogue on strengthening international economic cooperation for development through partnership

Draft resolution submitted by the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Burak Özügergin (Turkey), on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/53/L.36

Renewal of the dialogue on strengthening international economic cooperation for development through partnership

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 48/165 of 21 December 1993, 49/95 of 19 December 1994, 50/122 of 20 December 1995, 51/174 of 16 December 1996 and 52/186 of 18 December 1997,

Recalling also the adoption of the Agenda for Development[1] and the relevant provision on its follow-up and implementation, and the need to give impetus to international economic cooperation for development so as to effectively follow up on the Agenda,

Expressing satisfaction with the holding of the first high-level dialogue on the social and economic impacts of globalization and interdependence and their policy implications, on 17 and 18 September 1998, including the use of a panel, which was not part of the formal proceedings, and round-table discussions which promoted interactive dialogue,

1. Reaffirms the continued need to strengthen constructive dialogue and genuine partnership in order to promote further international economic cooperation for development;

2. Stresses that such dialogue should be conducted in response to the imperatives of mutual interests and benefits, genuine interdependence, shared responsibility and the partnership for achieving development as well as for improving the international economic environment so that it is conducive to such development, and that the United Nations system should reinforce its activities in order to facilitate such a dialogue in accordance with relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

3. Decides to hold biennially a high-level renewal of the dialogue of the General Assembly on strengthening international economic cooperation for development through partnership to provide impetus for the promotion of international economic cooperation for development;

4. Also decides that, building on the experience of the high-level dialogue held on 17 and 18 September 1998, the theme and the modalities of the second high-level dialogue will be decided through the intergovernmental process at the fifty-fourth session of the General Assembly;

5. Requests the Secretary-General, in close consultation with Governments, all relevant parts of the United Nations system and relevant intergovernmental organizations, to propose themes for the promotion of international economic cooperation for development for the second high-level dialogue for consideration by the General Assembly at its fifty-fourth session;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-fourth session under the appropriate item, the sub-item entitled "Renewal of the dialogue on strengthening international economic cooperation for development through partnership".
